24th December 2024

Dear all,

As we come together to celebrate this wonderful season of Christmas, I want to send my warmest wishes to everyone here in Sri Lanka and across the globe. Christmas is a time to reflect on the values that unite us and to share those with those around us.

To our fellow Sri Lankans living and working abroad, I am deeply grateful for your hard work and the sacrifices you make for our nation. You are an essential part of our community, and your resilience and dedication do us proud.

This Christmas, let's embrace hope and joy, cherishing the time with our loved ones and finding strength in the spirit of unity. Together, we can build a brighter, more harmonious future for all.

Wishing you and your families a Merry Christmas and a New Year filled with happiness and peace.

H.M. Vijitha Herath, MP

Minister of Foreign Affairs, Foreign Employment and Tourism of the Democratic Socialist Republic of Sri Lanka
